Important Information Learning Agreement

- You have to have studied a subject for at least two semesters at your home university to attend courses at UZH.
- If you want to attend course modules in both your major and your minor(s), please fill in a separate learning agreement for each field of study.
- The subject you want to attend most of the course modules will be your “Main subject at UZH”.
- See the list attached to find out the name of your academic advisor(s).
- The approval of the academic advisor is no guarantee for getting a spot in the respective courses. Each course module has to be booked online.

Procedure Learning Agreement

- Go to <https://studentservices.uzh.ch/uzh/anonym/vvz/index.html> to choose the course modules you want to attend.
- Fill in the personal data and the course modules.
- Print the document, sign and scan it.
- Send the learning agreement together with your transcript of records to the responsible academic advisor for their assessment and signature.
- Once the learning agreement has been signed by both you and the academic advisor, upload it to the Mobility Online Database. If you have more than one learning agreement (e.g. one for your major and one for your minor), you have to merge it into one single document before the upload.
